

About Christina Chambreau, DVM

www.christinachambreau.com

Christina Chambreau, DVM is an internationally known homeopathic veterinarian. A dynamic teacher, Dr. Chambreau is chair of the board & founder of the Academy of Veterinary Homeopathy and is on the faculty of the National Center for Homeopathy Summer School. She also teaches her own 1 and 2 day courses, and lectures at conventions, schools, clubs and to anyone who is concerned about improving the health of animals. She has written and is quoted in many magazines. She graduated from the University of Georgia Veterinary College in 1980, began using homeopathy in her veterinary practice in 1983, and has used primarily homeopathy since 1988. She is married to Dr. Mort Orman, author of the 14-Day Stress Cure and How to Have a Stress Free Wedding. They have a 12-year-old daughter Tracie and live near Baltimore, Maryland.